

EXCELLENCE in CLOTHING

It isn't difficult to obtain, if you take our route. Easy in price, too. Not a suit but what is the dependable kind, honestly made, trim and lined. There's a satisfactory clothing route, and an unsatisfactory one. Ours is the satisfactory one.

Easy-to-Buy-Suits.

Any price you feel like paying—beginning at $3.00. But this fact can be relied upon—No matter the price you pay, it's absolutely the best for the money that it's possible to obtain. Perfectly fitting—made up in such perfect manner that you get the best of service—tailored in such matchless style that fitting clothes are yours. At any price, but always the best for the money.

Easy-to-Buy-Overcoats.

They have style, fit and comfort—three good points about a good overcoat. They have reasonable prices, that's another good point. We've an overcoat stock to interest you. No matter the overcoat in mind, the chances are you'll find it at our store, and you'll find the price right. An elegant range of styles, in meltons, kerseys, friezes, chinchillas, in the newest autumn and winter shapes.

Splendid Values.

Underwear season is here, sure. Try our kind. They are reasonable in price, matchless in quality. A superb one, knitted to fit, at 25 cents per garment. If you want to go higher, we've plenty of them. Same with Mackintoshes. A good one with strapped, stitched and cemented seams, for $2.50. Better if you want them.

Properly Lined.

If your made-to-order suit is fashioned right—a comfortable, satisfactory suit—it must be properly lined, and with linings that match the suit perfectly. There need be no "danger" sign with the EDWARD ROSE & CO. make. They are honest all through.

If you want to know the news of the past week, you will find it in this issue of The Herald.

Mr. C. E. Morrison and wife attended meeting and the big baptizing at Haynesville Sunday.

Mr. A. J. Bell went to Pleasant Ridge yesterday on business. He will move his family there the last of this week.

W. P. Downs and son, Jesse, of Springfield, Illinois, are the guests of Mrs. James Williams and family, of near town.

Miss Carrie Cox, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. L. Heavrin, of this place, for several weeks, left yesterday for Owensboro, to visit relatives, and to her home in Stanley, Ky.

Lost—An end of one of Don Sullivan's fingers in a sawage grinder last Saturday at G. W. Westfield's butcher shop. Does not mind losing the finger so much as he does the spoiling the looks of his left hand.

Newcomers to us of a fatal accident which occurred on South side, a few days ago. Josh Benton, a well known farmer of this county, was taken to the hospital on Sunday, and one which was being rolled off a wagon. He was thrown against another log and so badly crashed that the physician who attended him thinks his recovery impossible.

The Christian people of Hartford should take a deeper interest in the weekly prayer meeting, which is held every Sunday at 10 o'clock, at the church, where are Christian friends in Hartford to give each prayer service a splendid attendance if they would only turn out.

Parties resulting for The Herald will please remember that all past-due subscriptions are $1.35 per year. You will therefore send $1.35 for each year to date. Please do not forget this, and let us have what is due on these back years at once. Don't think this is a small sum. If you are not a subscriber, please send us your name and address, so we can send you a copy of the paper.

In another column will be found the announcement of the Seminary and Commercial Institute at Beaver Dam, Wis., which is being held in Hartford, one of the leading institutions of learning of the country. It now has a faculty of five young men, well equipped men, all graduates of leading institutions, and the coming term promises to be by far the most prosperous in its history.

Mr. E. Bishop, secretary of the Louisville Drain Tile Co., is in Hartford prospecting. Mr. Bishop is investigating matters in our community with a view to establishing a tile plant here, if the prospect seems inviting. He appears well pleased with the outlook.

Dr. A. F. Stanley, a former resident of Ohio county, but at present assistant physician at the Western Kentucky Hospital at Hopkinsville, was here last Thursday at Mrs. Virginia Graves, an attendant at the above named hospital. The marriage took place in Nashville, at the residence of Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, who performed the ceremony.

The contractor and his hands are putting in full and extra time on the abatement work on Rough river near town. It is impossible to determine when the new bridge will be completed, but the men are pushing the work so as to get the more important part finished before the rise in the river and the severe weather come upon them.

A Very Serious Matter.

It is a painful subject and one which we dislike to dwell upon, but as a matter of fact we have been nearly as free from money here of late as a frog is from feathers. If we were to attempt to close the ventilating apertures of our pants with one dollar bills, we are quite sure they would still present an inviting passage for the cold north wind. If some of you folks who owe us on subscription could have a photograph of the inside of our pocketbook, you would find that the contents could be easily thrown upon a pair of apothecary's scales without changing the balance. Our cash receipts have been so light the past month that they would lie upon the stomach of the most confirmed dyspeptic without causing the least eructation.

In other words and more plainly speaking, we need MONEY. We are not out begging and if you do not owe us, this can scarcely interest you. But we are reaching for the ear of those careless and indifferent people who have been taking The Herald for half a dozen years—more or less—without stopping to consider what strange force of circumstance or propelling power brings it to them. Let us hear from you! If you can't pay all, pay part, if its only a dollar or two. At least treat us with the respect of letting us know that you are getting the paper and enjoying it, whether you ever expect to pay for it or not. Let US HEAR FROM YOU!

For Sale.

The Mandamus Suit.

One of the most interesting cases that has come up before the Ohio Circuit Court in late years was the Mandamus suit brought by Mr. G. B. Likens to compel the canvassing board of Ohio county to open and count the rejected ballots returned in the envelope provided for that purpose from the different precincts in the county at the election held on November 6, 1917. thing with them at all. Of the votes that were counted, however, the intention of the voter was clearly evident.

The court has directed that the canvassing board meet to-day (Wednesday) and that those ballots be counted and reported as indicated by the votes to be added to the already certified returns.

Mr. W. T. Ellis and Mr. E. D. Guffy, who led the opposing counties, each made excellent speeches in the case.

The Contest Case.

Considerable interest is now centering upon the contest case of the Democratic county candidate, led by Mr. G. B. Likens, who contests the election of the opponent for Circuit Clerk, Mr. S. A. Anderson. Attorneys for both sides have been busy the past week or more, taking the depositions of witnesses. The case comes up before the county contest board next Monday.

This board is usually composed of the county judge and the two nearest magistrates, but inasmuch as one of the magistrates in this case is a contestant, it will likely be supplanted by another. The law gives Judge Morton the privilege of acting in the case, but it is hardly probable that he will do so, as his removal is the main contest.

Esquires Woodard and Lee will likely act in the case. Judge Morton declines to act in this duty will devolve upon the county clerk, Mr. M. H. Hooker. Of course it is not the province or wish of the Democratic to object in this matter.

Their sole desire is that the case be given a fair and impartial trial, as free returned prosecutors. A report was given in justice, believing implicitly in the righteousness of their case.

The Democratic has made out an excellent case. One of their strong points has already been won—the mandate suit compelling them to return the ballots. The rejected ballots. Many evidences of irregularities are available, notably the return from McNelly, where the ballots were counted, and the name of Bailey only, but were counted for the full county Republican ticket.
